For 40 Acres is what C. C. Martin, formerly of Phoenix, paid Mr. Post for his home forty at Santa Cruz Valley Farms,

This for land that a year ago was a forest—this for land that is today threshing an estimate of 30 sax of barley to the acre. You want to investigate our markets at Tucsonyou will learn that we have the Salt River bested at least 20% on everything but cotton — and fully equalled in that. Further, owing to freedom from Johnson grass, we can produce any commodity for 20% less.

These are hard-boiled facts, which are going to hurt Mr. Holder of $700 and $800 land after this cotton flurry has subsided-and, make no mistake, we can raise just as much long staple to the acre and for less money owing to a cheaper labor supply. Raw land, $200 to $250-a few improved pieces as
